- 1 (12 oz.) jar

DIRECTIONS

Toss the beef roast in a 6- to 8-quart slow cooker with the rosemary, 1/2 tsp. salt and a generous grinding of pepper. Add the pepperoncini with their brine, along with the beef broth. Cover and cook on low until the meat is very tender and easy to pull apart, 7 to 8 hours. When the slow cooker has about 15 minutes left, heat 2 tbsp. butter in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add the onion, the remaining 1/4 tsp. salt and a few grinds of pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until tender and lightly browned, about 10 minutes. Remove the roast to a bowl and shred using 2 forks, then return it to the slow cooker. Keep warm. Preheat the broiler. Put the buns on a baking sheet and spread with the remaining 4 tbsp. butter. Broil until toasted, about 2 minutes. Heap a generous portion of meat on each roll, then spoon some of the cooking liquid over the meat. Top with a few pepperoncini from the slow cooker and plenty of caramelized onions. Put 2 slices of cheese on each sandwich and return to the broiler just to melt the cheese, about 1 more minute. Serve with potato chips and the extra cooking liquid on the side for dipping.
